CAHABA CONNECTIONS: THE STATE AND FUTURE OF OUR RIVER

August 4th (overnight stay optional)

Spend the day as discussing the most pressing issues facing the Cahaba River Watershed today, hearing success stories from groups and individuals protecting and preserving our waterways, and discovering ways we can all take action.

Friday, August 4th

- Introduction
- Problems and Success Stories on the Cahaba
- Lunch and Partner Updates
- Panel and Action-Oriented Breakout Sessions

Saturday, August 5th

Spend a leisurely day enjoying the Cahaba River and 440 acres of forests, lakes, and meadows. Canoe, hike, go birding, look for fossils, or relax in the river!

When: Friday with optional overnight

Where: Living River: A Retreat on the Cahaba

Cost:

- Conference Fee: $35 (includes Friday lunch)
- Overnight Option: $42 (includes overnight lodging and 2 additional meals)
